Schenck-Bulley Wedding.

Charming yellow and white appointments prevailed at the wedding of Miss Cora Wyn Schenck, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Schenck, and Charles Davis Bulley, solemnized yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at the home of the bride at East Green street in the presence of about 40 guests including relatives and a few intimate friends of the two families. The bride at party entered the parlor where the ceremony was performed in the stately of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Made Jennings.

During the ceremony "Beautiful Love" was softly rendered. The impressive ceremony was followed by the Rev. J. R. Allison, pastor of the Christian church. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Edna Pitts, of Somerset, as maid of honor. She wore a becoming gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Miss Pitts wore white messaline and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Walter Schenck, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Master Robert Schenck, a nephew of the bride, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schenck was ring bearer.

A beautifully appointed wedding dinner followed the ceremony. The decorations at the bride's table were especially attractive. The centerpieces were a mound of lavender chrysanthemums interspersed with maiden hair fern. The candlesticks were adorned with yellow shades and the chandeliers were festooned with similar. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Schenck, parents of the bride, John Bulley, and Miss Lulu Bulley, father and sister of the bridegroom. The Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Allison and Miss Made Jennings were also present. The same color scheme was cleverly carried out in the candies and ice cream. Large bunches of chrysanthemums were profusely used in all the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Bulley left for a wedding trip to Boston, Mass., and other points.

Hoffman, vocal solo by Miss Helen Butterworth and a reading by Miss Sarah West.

Mrs. Mary Silcox was made a life member of the society by her three sons, the Revs. E. H. Hunsen, pastor of the church, was made a life member by a number of members of the society. Two active members and ten honorary members were also secured. The thank offering amounted to $18.00, of which amount $10.00 was turned in from the thank offering boxes. A number of boxes have not as yet been turned in. Following the program delicious refreshments were served by a volunteer committee composed of Mrs. W. E. West, Mrs. H. C. Hoffman, Mrs. C. H. Ottom, Mrs. John Heinbaugh, and Mrs. Edna Miller.

Banquet and Turkey Supper.

Everything is in readiness for the annual Thanksgiving banquet and supper to be held tomorrow afternoon and evening in the parlor of the church under the auspices of the congregation of the Immaculate Conception Church. The event is always one of unusual interest and this year it promises to be the largest and best ever held. The banquet will be held in the auditorium and supper will be served from 6 until 10 in the basement. Over a week ago 1,200 supper tickets were sold. The Young Ladies' Society will serve. The banquet will come in for a share of the patronage. The fancy work, the domestic, the ready-broth, and other attractions will be great drawing cards for the evening. The turkey will be the largest and handsomest ever displayed here and there will be many choice articles to choose from. Persons in search of Christmas gifts should not fail to attend the banquet. This afternoon the children's day and the ladies in charge paid special attention to their little guests.

Mummi Dance Tonight.

A social event of importance is the fifth annual dance of the Connelville High School, which is to be held this evening in the Armory. The committee on arrangements, composed of C. W. Hays, Lloyd Shaw, J. Kirk Renner and T. Clifford Edmonds, have left nothing undone towards the success of the dance. A magnificent feature will be the handsome decoration, the large hall with its many decorations.

STOMACH SOUR?

INDIGESTION ALSO?

"Pape's Diapiesin" Makes Upset Stomachs Feel Fine in Five Minutes.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you feel gas and cramp-like sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapiesin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of-order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve your out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. Diapiesin is harmless and tastes like candy.

though each dose contains powder sufficient to digest all the food you eat, it is not a laxative or purgative, and it does not cause constipation.

This city will have many Diapiesin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be frank about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and force it down yourself if stomach trouble and indigestion—Advertisement.

When Baby Has Croup

Every Mother Should Know About Booth's IYOMEL.

In any home where a child has a tendency to croup, a bottle of IYOMEL (pronounced IY-oh-mel) should be kept constantly on hand.

A sudden attack of croup with difficult breathing and extreme distress is apt to come on at any time.

The course to be pursued is plain. Send for your doctor at once, and in the meantime drop 20 drops of IYOMEL into a bowl of boiling water and hold the child's head over it, cover with a towel or cloth, so that only the child's head with IYOMEL vapor is breathed.

This method of treatment has saved many a child's life, and mothers of croupy children should see to it that Booth's IYOMEL is always on hand. Full instructions for prompt relief of croup is in each package.

Booth's IYOMEL is made of Australian Eucalyptus and other antiseptics. Many returned if it does not give satisfaction in treatment of croup, coughs, colds, croup and catarrhal diseases. Ask A. A. Clarke about it.—Advertisement.

All Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.

When the blood becomes thin, poor, dehydrated nature cries out through the external and often painful evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.

This is because it is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, cures scurvy.

Mary Long of Allentown, Pa., says: "Ever since childhood, I have been delicate, and my blood poor, thin, and dehydrated. Nothing seemed to help me until I took Vinol and it has built me up and made me strong."

Why there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. Graham & Co., druggists. Vinol is sold in West Side by Fred H. Harmaning.

FOR THE WOMAN WHO THINKS AND FEELS.

Some women complain that they periodically suffer from dull and heavy feelings, or dizziness in the head, nervousness, pain and bearing-down feelings which should not occur to the normal healthy woman. But most every woman is subject to these pains at some time in her life, due to abnormal conditions in life, such as over-exertion, over-taxed strength, bad air, poor or improper food, wet feet, sluggish liver, etc. A regulator and female tonic made from native medicinal roots with pure glycerin, and without the use of alcohol, called has proven its value in thousands of cases, like the following:

"Miss DONA M. MARTIN, of Auburn, Me., Route 1, Box 54, writes: 'I should like to write you in regard to what your medicine has done for me. I have used it for thirty years for female trouble and general weakness with the very best results, and they have saved me from a life of suffering. I buy the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and take them together. I never was disappointed in your remedies and take pleasure in recommending them to any suffering lady. I am now almost fifty years old, at forty-five I took your medicine, both kinds, and I passed that period very easily and with no fat and healthy. I feel like a young girl.'"

If any lady cares to write me, I will gladly tell her more about the good work of your medicines."

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition of 1008 pages, answers hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know. Sent free in cloth binding to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of wrapping and mailing only.

Oldest Man in the World is to Visit Chicago; is Indian Chief

CHIEF WAN-HAN-GUN-TA, 131 YEARS OLD

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—Chicago is soon to entertain the oldest man in the world. He is Wan-Han-Gun-Ta, a 131-year-old Blackfoot Indian. He was born in the region now known as Glacier National Park in 1781, according to well authenticated tradition. His wrinkled countenance bears this out. He was the first red man in that territory to visit the great white father, and his journey to the capital when President Jefferson was in the White House was a memorable event in his life. He is regarded in his tribe as an oracle. At the time of his birth, so the Indian legend goes, the father of all spirits, standing on the mountain, shot an arrow at his father's temple. The prophecy, as interpreted by the medicine men, is that he would live forever and assist the Gods in their councils. The aged Indian is a chief-counselor. The aged Indian is a chief-counselor. WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 27, 1912.

THANKSGIVING.

In accordance with an American custom the people of this country will observe the Thanksgiving holiday tomorrow. The day of pious prayer and Thanksgiving for divine favor originally appointed by the Puritan fathers has become a great national holiday. The good Christian people still assemble in their churches and give thanks for the blessings bestowed upon them, but the chief business of the day consists of eating a big turkey dinner. Even the turkey is supposed to be the successor of the wild bird tradition says was the price of resistance to the Puritan housewife's dinner scheme.

Barring its indigestible character, Thanksgiving Day is a wholesome holiday. It is good for American men and women to reflect once and while upon the fact that they have much to be thankful for. No other nation in the world enjoys so many comforts and conveniences or maintains a higher plane of living. Notwithstanding this fact, we have among us many chronic grumblers who think the world owes them a living and that it should be as good as anybody else's regardless of relative industry and ability.

The American people as a rule have reason to be thankful tomorrow that the nation is prosperous and the immediate future contains no sinister threat to the prevailing good times. The restless citizens have wrought a change in politics, but we will hope that it will not involve a change of public policy serious enough to affect the general welfare. The citizens of the Conneltsville coke region have abundant reason to be thankful. Coke prices are profitable; there is employment at liberal wages for every workman; local business is excellent, and there is abundance for everybody.

Let us all be thankful for the present and hopeful for the future.

THE CONNELLSVILLE COKE CASE.

If the Conneltsville coke operators do not win their suit to compel the railroad to revise the discriminatory freight rates in favor of the low-grade coke and neighboring regions it will not be the fault of the able manner in which their case has been prepared and presented; on the other hand, the attorneys for the railroad may be and perhaps are who lawyers, but their knowledge of the coke business is neither as thorough nor as profound as their familiarity with that other coke exploited by Unakotone.

The principle upon which freight rates on coke have been formulated seems to be the old one so much complained of in these days of equitable regulation, namely, "as much as the traffic will bear." In the Conneltsville coke case the product is the best in the country and the world, and consumers are always willing to pay a higher price for it than for the inferior coke of other districts. Hence it early became a railroad rule to discriminate against the region and in favor of the low-grade coke regions. In order to permit the latter to market their product in competition with that of the Conneltsville region.

As pointed out by counsel for the Conneltsville operators it is no part of the railroad's business to consider the value of the commodities it transports save only as the value affects what may be termed the insurance part of the rate. That is the part upon which the railroad is liable for damage claims arising in connection with the dangers of its transportation. Coke is not a highly breakable or perishable commodity and therefore its transportable reason why the high-grade coke of the Conneltsville region should take a relatively higher freight rate than the low-grade coke of other districts. It may be in the interest of a railway system to build up one coke region at the expense of another, but it is no part of its duty as a common carrier, and it amounts to an unlawful discrimination.

The propriety of the railroad counsel is illustrated by the position on their part that Conneltsville operators are seriously at fault for not providing more yard and storage room for surplus coke. Just what this has to do with discriminatory freight rates is not very apparent. However, it serves to show that the railroad cannot but have a very limited knowledge of modern coke practice. It is true that the new type of coke oven adapted to mechanical drawing does not contemplate the storage of stock on the yards, but it is also true that operators avoid this practice as much as possible, and further that its indulgence could have little effect upon the railroad situation at any time save adversely by creating traffic congestion in times of sudden and unusual demand.

The orderly movement of coke, we take it, is most desirable to every interest and from every point of view. There is no good business reason why there should be at any time a surplus of coke on the yards of the Conneltsville coke business. Though it is possible that it will have to give up the coke business to Green county some day.

New Truck's Murder Trust is in a fair way to be broken up.

Mr. Pleasant sportsman are still hunting in Fulton county. Perhaps the State authorities will soon open up their hearts and the Westmoreland county game preserve.

McKeesport wants the West Penn regulated to more rapid service be-between that city and some of the neighboring towns. The policy of the West Penn in the Conneltsville coke region is to give the public as much service as the traffic will bear.

Now that the Lake Erie is making Dickerson Run a railroad center it is becoming a question which community is going to be annexed. Dawson had better get busy.

Under the laws of Pennsylvania it takes a very agile man to jump a board bill.

Dear are reported to be plentiful in the neighborhood of the Bill Plette distillery in Salitick township. Some Bull Moose were noticed in the same neighborhood just prior to the election.

Dawson has completed its water reservoir and is now assured of a plentiful supply of pure water.

The Uniontown High School football team has been disbanded, but the Conneltsville boys will remain in the field. The latter have not done anything to forfeit their position or the respect of the public. They will show the Washington boys good football and good manners.

The report that turkeys are scarce and high is common to Thanksgiving seasons.

The jury in the case of Burton W. Glosen, accused of the murder of Rose Szabo, failed to agree, all of which was very agreeable to the defendant.

The dairy employee who ran amuck out The Narrows was evidently not not been confining himself to milk.

The Conneltsville Teachers' Institute will be open to all friends of education and such friends should not fail to make a friendly call.

A belligerent dog is no respecter of the law or the legs of its representative.

LITTLE WOMEN.

By Isaac of Yukon.

Miss Louisa May Alcott was one of the highest-spirited, six-cylinder writers of snappy, Bull Moose sentiment of her race.

She wrote the book, Little Women, with her left hand, while the pencil potteries for dinner with her right hand. She was a gifted, noble woman with nobleness pictured on her face in three colors of pink.

Miss Alcott saw with her own eyes that each one of the four girls across the street had a bean, and that the epidemic of bean was quite the thing. Louisa was inclined to literature and as a result no young man had any time to talk about rhetoric and criminal law.

Louisa got mad and put in an entire winter writing up the four young girls across the way. She called them Little Women and the point has been accepted. She wrote as good reading rather than a joke.

The book reads like a novel. The story has the Seven Southernland Sisters out-closed in every particular. The author might have bunched together Edgar, Alice, Molly, Pickett, Barbara, Fritchle and Mary and her little Lamb as one story, but she was after the Little Women across the way.

Little Women had their troubles. They were either taking their pills, blood purifier or rubbing their joints with four-fold liniment for rheumatism. True it is they did not have appendicitis but the seven-year itch was very popular. Some one was always hounded with the chills, measles or mumps.

Louisa May Alcott should have gone over to the Little Women and induced them to have sent her some left-over, enthusiastic beans as a kind of a trial. The Little Women were not narrow-minded and would have been willing to have acted as a quiet distributing agency for the crowd of beans who were always on the application list.

For a book written before the days of "Have Women a Right to Vote?" and "Can the Bottom be Knocked Out of the High Cost of Living?" it is regarded as rather queer.

WHY! Every Woman and Child Should

Buy Munsingwear

There are a lot of good reasons for buying Munsing Underwear besides the fact that it fits and covers the form perfectly. In the first place the buttons are sewed on to stay, the button-holes are perfectly made and the trimmings of a superior quality. Each garment is cut with mathematical precision, shaped after the most approved models and the fit will not wash out. Only the finest yarns are used and the elastic flat seams cannot bind, bunch or unravel. Therefore the garment wears as long as the highest priced underwear. Women's union suits and two-piece suits with high neck, long sleeves and ankle length. Duchess neck, elbow sleeve and ankle length. Low neck, sleeveless and ankle length. Also Boys, Youths, Girls and Misses styles in a good assortment. The prices are so low that everyone can be a Munsing wearer.

Our Neckwear Display.

This store has a reputation for showing the daintiest and newest conceits in Neckwear of any store in town. Right now we have on display an exceptionally big assortment of up-to-the-minute styles that are a real attraction to anyone and most of the popular priced numbers are put up in Christmas boxes for early holiday shoppers. Nearly every approved feature in Neckwear styles will be found at this counter at prices most reasonable.

New Styles in Bags.

One lot of these for Christmas has arrived and considering the quality, they have been priced very low. Genuine Walrus and Seal, Goat Seal, Mesh and Beaded Bags of all kinds down to little chain, leather and hand painted bags for the little folks. These are in good demand for present day use and appropriate suggestions as gifts.

FULL SPEED AHEAD

THE BUSIEST DAYS OF THE YEAR

The Union Supply Company stores are now having the busiest days of the year; they are pushing ahead at full speed, and we are arranging for a continuance of big business until after Christmas. The cold weather is making a great demand for all sorts of winter goods. The great piles or quantities of winter underwear, hosiery, sweaters, and such other winter garments that we are selling daily, and the great quantities of the same lines that are coming in daily are really enormous. But the object in talking about them here, is to impress you with the fact that we have the right kind of goods, and they are being sold at reasonable prices. Otherwise we would not have this big trade, and further we want to induce you to come to our store for these lines. We have the best 50c garment in underwear in the market. We have sweaters of all colors, all sizes from 50c to $5.00. We have all kinds of gloves; woolen in fancy colors; leather of all sorts and prices, short glove or with the gauntlet. We have the buck mits and gloves; the old fashioned kind; never rip. We want you to look at these goods, and look further through our general line of furnishings for men, women, boys and children. They are the most complete stocks you can find in any store in the coke region. We also want to call attention to our very handsome winter coats for women and girls, and for small children. Goods manufactured especially for us and sold to you at the very lowest price that can be quoted.

We Expect to Have Many Bargain Sales for Women During the Next Month

Daily, our stores will have some new attraction. One day it will be millinery; next day perhaps coats for women and children. Then we will change to dress goods likely; then likely a remnant day. Now if you will watch the stores; watch the sales they are daily advertising, and are prepared to take advantage of the numerous bargains, it is going to be a great money saving to you. Many remnants are accumulating always in large stocks. We cannot afford to keep them and our plan is to sell them out at one-half the original regular price. They often consist of short ends of dress goods, white goods, lace goods or perhaps gingham, or some other wash goods. Then it may be some odds and ends in skirts, shirt waists or some other useful garment. Watch the bargain sales; you cannot afford to miss them. It is a good opportunity to buy goods for Christmas gifts, but a better opportunity to buy goods you actually need daily; first-class in quality and much less than actual value.

A Scene From "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." THE SOISSON.

LITTLE WOMEN TONIGHT.
Louisa M. Abbott's "Little Women," dramatized by Marion de Forest, will be at the Soloson Theatre tonight.

Since the first announcement of the coming of this play much interest has been shown and already many mail orders have been received from surrounding towns. The seats are in demand and it is now a fact that the play will be the rule in all communities.

William A. Brady, who is making the production, promises that the beauty and character of the play will have been faithfully maintained. He has been most careful in his selection of "Little Women" to insure the most perfect presentation of the play. The production is a masterpiece of art and the costumes and properties used by the March family in their home play will be used in this production. As last seen on the stage of the Soloson Theatre, the play is a masterpiece of art and the costumes and properties used by the March family in their home play will be used in this production.

Incidentally Mr. Abbott paid the dramatist, Miss de Forest, a very pretty compliment. After reading the dramatization, he remarked, "If Aunt Louisa were alive today, I believe that she would have written it herself."

THE TRAIL OF THE LONESOME PINE.

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine, a remarkable dramatization of John Fox, Jr.'s book of that name, by Eugene Walter, is one of the most remarkable presentations of the season. The mountains and valleys with the winding river, the hills and trees, the cabins and caves have been painted with realism and beauty in the magnificent production given the play. In long runs in Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago the play enjoyed the biggest business of late years.

It is said that the play has been given as elaborate a scenic setting and electrical equipment as this play has. In the production, the mountain characters, which were followed by so many readers of the book, will be seen visualized. Early Billy Dean, the justice of the peace, who runs the mill and who leads his mule on which is seated his wife, old Hun, smoking a pipe. David Todd, Tolliver, June's father, the country doctor, who has a sweetheart. And there is Loretta, Dave's sweetheart. The tongue is that of the mountaineers. In fact, each one of the players is bone and blood of the Southland.

The next sale will open at the Soloson Theatre Saturday for this great play which comes next Wednesday night.

THE COLONIAL.

VAUDEVILLE AT COLONIAL.

Deacon's Trans-Atlantic which comes to the Colonial theatre for two performances tomorrow, matinee and night, is perhaps one of the most unique organizations of its kind playing the better class houses today. This company was founded over 15 years ago by James Deacon and has shown in almost every country in the world. They are now making their fifth tour to the Coast and Manager Necht is indeed fortunate in securing this talented organization.

A few of the acts with the Trans-Atlantic are as follows: Nick Long and Idaline Cotton presenting their famous dramatic gem, "The Banker and the Thief," by Ullie Akersmith. This is one of the most intense dramatic plays ever presented and gives great scope to Miss Cotton's dramatic ability. Famous and Millham present their musical novelties, carrying almost a ton of special scenery and effects, and playing musical instruments from an old well furnished with running water to the well known "Rock of Ages." The Great Alexandra Troupe of seven people showing their native songs and dances. Gladys and Gladys who a short time ago played an engagement at the Grand Opera House, Pittsburgh, in novelty songs and dances, closing with their famous baseball skit, Jimmy Lewis, monologist extraordinary. The Famous Bartolo, comedian supreme. Dorothy Lyons and company, comedy skit "A Strange Boy."

Other acts on the bill include Arthur Loretta, the Musical General, well known clown from Ringling Brothers shows. The Great Football and company, European athletes and jugglers. Taken all in all this is one of the greatest organizations of vaudeville stars ever put together. Matinee at 2:30, evening at 8:15.

IT'S A MISTAKE.

Made by Many Connelville Residents.

Many people in a misguided effort to get rid of kidney backache, rely on plasters, liniments and other makeshifts. The right treatment is kidney treatment and a remarkably recommended kidney medicine is Doan's Kidney Pills. Connelville is no exception.

The proof is at your very door. The following is an experience typical of the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Connelville.

H. D. Barclay, 464 E. Main St., Connelville, Pa., says: "I had a lame back and severe pains in my joints. I could not rest well and was hardly able to straighten after sleeping. The kidney secretions were highly colored and of a confined heavy sediment. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of the trouble with the kidney secretions and removed the lameness and pains in my back. I now sleep soundly and feel better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WRIGHT-METZLER CO.

BUREAU OF MINES IS CUTTING DEATH RATE IN THE PIT

Indications Point to Decrease in Fatalities During 1912.

"SAFETY FIRST" THE SLOGAN

Statistics Show Nearly Six Men Die for Each Million Tons of Coal Mined and Dr. Holmes is Working to Save Employees Lives and Limbs.

One human life is lost in this country for every 183,000 tons of coal which are mined, and the total killed in the mines last year was 2,719, a sufficient number to complete the quota of three military regiments of strong men.

The total production of coal in this country is about 600,000,000 tons, and for each million tons leaving the mines nearly six men die. Human life is an item in the cost of coal production which the government is working to reduce by bringing about co-operation of both mine owners and mine workers in a "safety first" movement. Dr. Joseph A. Holmes, director of the United States Bureau of Mines, in speaking of the annual death toll of the mines, says:

"The principal cause of the large death toll of the mines is the falling of the slate or coal in the roofs of the mines, and 1,321 miners were crushed by falls of roof. This class of accidents is not familiar to most people, for the public hears more about the loss of life in coal mine explosions and mine fires for the reason that in each of such disasters many lives may be lost. An examination of the record, however, shows that nearly one-half of all the killed lost their lives because of falls of roof and coal.

"Next comes the death list from mine car and mine locomotive accidents. About these the public also hears little for the reason that the men are killed one or two at a time, averaging more than one a day over the country throughout the year, or total of 438 for last year.

"Gas and coal dust explosions come third in the number killed, and last year 362 lost their life through accidents of this kind. The figures collected by one of my assistants, George S. Rice, show that powder and explosions other than gas or dust killed 134, while 94 were killed in electrical accidents and 80 in mine fires. Miscellaneous causes were responsible for the death of 290 miners.

"Co-operation of mine owners and miners to prevent accidents is bringing about a substantial decrease in fatality rates, and during the first eight months of the present year the total number of men killed in coal mines is 1,453. If this rate holds out, the death toll for the year will be less than 2,200, against 2,719 in 1911.

"In disclosing the causes of such accidents as those of falls of roof and coal," continued Director Holmes, "little is to be gained by declaring that the miners or that the mine owner is mostly to blame. As a matter of fact, neither the mine owner nor the miner acting alone can entirely prevent such accidents. Each has his part to do; each is responsible for doing his part well. If the miners will co-operate with the mine owner and the mine owner will co-operate with the miners in an earnest effort to prevent these accidents, many lives will be saved.

"Let both the miner and the mine foreman co-operate with the inspectors in the efforts to safeguard life. Let 'safety first' be our motto and guide in practice as well as in theory, and the mining industry will receive public approval and assistance in bringing about other reforms that the industry greatly needs."

Thursday! Thanksgiving!

With Homefolks and Friends About the Table, is a Good Time to Plan for Christmas.

Can you picture in your mind an old fashioned Christmas—the kind of Christmas that we put our heart and soul into—thought of nothing else for six weeks before, and remembered with keen joy, for twice as long afterward?

—when we got up early Christmas morning—before daylight—and out in snow knee-deep, shouting "Christmas Gift" to every neighbor who was up as early as ourselves.

We were off to Uncle Dave's, and Aunt Mary's and old Grandma Gibson's—and oh, so many others—to tell them to be sure and stop for dinner when church was "out."

—then back home to unlock the door of a certain room that contained the Christmas tree! My, but things broke loose then! One toy apiece for each kiddie—a drum, a doll, a sled, boots, neckties, handkerchiefs—what not?

—And after they got their's—little Sammie and Jane, and Charlie, and Ethel—each had some little token, store bought, for Pop and Ma, and Grandpap and Grandma and big brother—a woolen scarf, warm stockings, mittens, a shawl and maybe a stick pin—or some other trinket—perhaps dazzling, but useful just the same—that they'd bought, undetected, with the money earned in the berry patch.

Of course you can remember the old fashioned Christmas!

We put a good deal of thought in our gifts then, because we didn't have much money to spend.

Nowadays we leave our shopping until the last minute and then do it in a cut-and-dried way and wonder why we get up Christmas morning out of sorts with all the world.

So, Let us Plan, Thursday, For the Old Kind of Christmas

This store, at least, is going to make an old fashioned Christmas for those who want in.

"Old fashioned" in this sense—

That our floors and stocks are not loaded up to make a show, but with Christmas merchandise of usefulness and beauty—sturdy, worthy things for those who earned money in the latter day berry patch, as well as the dainty, delicate, one-of-a-kind gifts for those people to buy who earned their money easier.

—No gewgaws and flimsy things that look pretty for a time—a short time—then go to pieces.

We've had our eyes open since last Christmas for newer and better kinds of helpful and useful gifts.

THEY ARE ON DISPLAY FRIDAY AND READY FOR YOU TO SELECT.

We have trained a force of intelligent useful salespeople; We have newly arranged many parts of the store so that shopping may be done quickly, comfortably, pleasurably and with satisfaction. Now won't you come Friday to our

Christmas Opening

And plan to shop earlier this year?
